

FRIDAY UPDATE

Friday 24th October 2025

Thank you to everyone who came along to parents evening. It was so lovely to celebrate the children's fantastic start to the school year. We can already see wonderful progress in their learning this term and are so proud of every single one of them.

Today we said a sad goodbye to Mrs Nina Fowle, our school Family Support worker, who leaves The Avenue today. We wished her well with her new adventures and thanked her for all her incredible support for the children and families of The Avenue over many years. We welcome Miss Halford who will step into the Family Support Worker role.

Today is the last day of term and we look forward to welcoming the children back to school on Tuesday 4th November. Have a lovely half term break everyone.

In celebration assembly today we said well done to the following children, who received Special Awards and special gold Headteacher's Award sticker:

As part of our commitment to safeguarding, it is important that we ensure that parents/carers are as informed as possible about online safety and well-being. Age rating guidance on Halloween horror movies

Many children and young people enjoy exploring new and exciting genres and themes in the films and TV they consume – and as they grow, the maturity of this content will likely increase with them. However, without proper supervision and safeguarding, youngsters looking for a new title to enjoy – especially in the horror genre – might get a little more than they're ready for.

The emotional and psychological impacts of viewing age-inappropriate content can be severe. It's vital for parents and educators to know how to keep the children in their care as safe as possible while young people explore new, potentially grittier or darker, pieces of media. This guide breaks down the risks of viewing age-inappropriate content, with a particular focus on horror, and offers expert advice on how to limit youngsters' exposure to material that might upset or disturb them.

The guide on this subject can be downloaded from our school Facebook page. <https://www.facebook.com/TheAvenueInfantSchool/> and from the school website.
