Dear parent and carers,

I am writing to let you know that, sadly, Miss Tuck, Year 2 teacher and Deputy Head, has decided to move on from The Avenue after nearly three years with us and will be leaving at the end of this term. She has accepted a job at a school much closer to her home. We will miss Miss Tuck enormously at The Avenue and she has had a huge impact on the school over the time she has been with us but we know she will continue to be fabulous in her new role and I'm sure you will join us in wishing her all the very best for the future.

Rest-assured we have worked hard to quickly recruit the new deputy head and we have been lucky enough to appoint Mr Jamie Pell to the role of Deputy Head and Beech class teacher from January. Mr Pell is a very experienced Key Stage One teacher and school leader at a local school and I know he will bring a great deal to The Avenue.

Mr Pell will be visiting The Avenue a number of times over the next few weeks, working with Miss Tuck to ensure a good handover and get to know Beech class.

Beech class parents:

There will be a chance to meet Mr Pell at an after school drop in session on Monday 9th December from 3.15pm for Beech class parents. We do hope you will be able to come along to welcome Mr Pell.

Thank you for your continuing support.

Yours sincerely,

Helen Morrall
Head teacher
