

The Avenue Infant School FRIDAY UPDATE

Friday 29th January 2016

Well done to...

In celebration assembly today we said well done to the following children, who received Special Awards:

Olivier (Class 6)– for talking to the whole class confidently

Gino (Class 6)– for being able to write your name and listening carefully to the sounds in words and writing them.

Lily-Rose (Class 6)- for using a variety of resources to make a picture of Rapunzel

Charlie (Class 5)- for super concentration on a counting and matching number activity

William (Class 5)- for frequently putting up his hand to answer questions in class

Savanna (Class 4)- for confident and careful collaging of a lighthouse scene

Marsel (Class 4)- for trying so hard to form letters correctly, a great improvement in his handwriting

Aimee-Louise (Class 3)- for excellent teamwork to put out the Great Fire of London

Ben W (Class 3)- for being a super king in the Great Fire of London drama with our visitor this week

Abigail (Class 2)- for reading carefully and answering questions accurately about what she read

Rowan (Class 2)- for making some excellent choices this week and working very hard with a positive attitude

Ernie (Class 1)- for working so hard– challenging himself and being determined to improve and succeed

Astin (Class 1)- for producing careful and detailed work about the Kenyan flag

Well done all of you for super effort and hard work. You should be very proud of yourselves.
