

The Avenue Infant School

FRIDAY UPDATE

Friday 11th March 2016

Well done to...

In celebration assembly today we said well done to the following children, who received Special Awards:

- Olivia (Class 6)– for making new friends, joining in with the jobs and having fun in Class 6
- Keesha (Class 6)- for creating a castle using 2D shapes, labelling the parts of the castle and the names of the shapes.
- Blazej (Class 5)- for writing and reading out a fantastic descriptive sentence to the class
- Clayton (Class 5)- for giving a detailed description of your weekend and answering questions
- Sophia (Class 4)- for trying hard to listen to the sounds in words when writing
- Nikola (Class 4)- for following instructions carefully to create a camouflage animal pattern drawing
- Jacob (Class 3)- for thinking of lots of different adjectives in the class writing 'We're going on a Shark Hunt'
- Alyssia (Class 3)- for working hard on her jumping skills and challenging herself in PE
- Daisy (Class 2)- for always listening to feedback given and applying it to make her work even better
- Chloe (Class 2)- for careful and thoughtful art work in the style of Piet Mondrian
- Rowan (Class 2)- for persevering when drawing his portrait of the queen– listening to advice and taking your time
- Christian (Class 1)- for working hard to include punctuation in his writing and using interesting vocabulary
- Sammy (Class 1)- for thoughtful and articulate diary entry writing in role as Rosa Parks

Well done all of you for super effort and hard work. You should be very proud of yourselves.
