THURSDAY UPDATE

Thursday 24th March 2016

Well done to...

In celebration assembly today we said well done to the following children, who received Special Awards:

- Markus (Class 6)– for independently writing his name carefully on all his work.
- Kesini (Class 6)- for creating and completing so many jobs at home and sharing them with the class.
- Aydin (Class 5)- for sharing his thoughts during circle time and speaking very clearly.
- Lexi (Class 5)- for challenging herself to order pictures of 5 people by their size.
- Jacob G (Class 4)- for working extremely hard in Maths, learning how to share an amount equally.
- Darcy (Class 4)- for writing a lovely sound poem, thinking of her own idea.
- Hawa (Class 3)- for having a really good attitude to learning and trying her best with a big smile.
- Ellese (Class 3)- for trying hard in phonics using sounds to read and write words independently.
- Grisha (Class 2)- for trying exceptionally hard when writing a letter in English.
- Rowan (Class 2)- for working amazingly hard in every lesson and making excellent choices.
- Johno (Class 2)- for making good use of his time and working hard in Maths this week.
- Isabel (Class 1)- for writing a detailed and powerful letter to Mrs Morrall in English this week.
- Simone (Class 1)- for working hard to complete lots of maths challenges carefully and with accurate working out.

Well done all of you for super effort and hard work. You should be very proud of yourselves.
